

The Massachusetts Chapter of the Fulbright Association cordially invites you to

A Historic Tour of Salem

Saturday, April 2, 2011, 10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Please join us as we visit the historic seaside town of Salem and the Peabody Essex Museum (PEM). PEM is an international museum with world-renowned collections of fine art, decorative art, and architecture. The museum's founders were among America's first global entrepreneurs, traveling the world in search of trade. The collections they amassed are exceptional for their provenance, age, quality, and significance. You will view the finest maritime art in the United States, art and cultures of North America, Africa, Asia and the Pacific Islands. To learn more about the museum, visit its web site at: <http://www.pem.org>

Schedule

- 11:30 a.m. - Lunch at Bangkok Paradise, 90 Washington St. Salem ($10/person)
- 1:00 p.m. - Tour of the Peabody Essex Museum (Your entrance fee is covered by the Fulbright Association. If you wish to visit the Chinese House there is a $10 extra fee)
- 3:00 p.m. - Bus tour of historic Salem homes
- 4:00 p.m. - Return

Transportation

Visiting Fulbrighters may take advantage of transportation provided by using our bus service. The bus will depart from The Inn at Harvard on 1201 Massachusetts Avenue at 10:00 a.m. Other area stops (at 15 minute intervals) before proceeding to Salem are: M.I.T. at 77 Massachusetts Avenue; Boston University at 19 Deerfield Street; and, Northeastern University at 360 Huntington Avenue.

For reservations, please respond by March 26 to Jim Terlizzi at: jterlizzi1@verizon.net

Please indicate if you will be attending AND if you are taking the bus or driving – thank you!

Please note that there is a limit of 50 persons on the bus. It is possible to drive to the Bangkok Paradise. There is metered parking in the rear.
